OUR ROOTS

Flt. Lt. Ross M. Ferguson D.F.C.
1923 - 2003

The Ross Ferguson 242 Squadron operates out of the Erin Legion in Erin, Ontario. The 242 Squadron is named in memory of a decorated local WWII veteran, Flt. Lt. Ross Ferguson.

He was born in Scotsguard, Saskatchewan, in 1923 and made Erin, Ontario, his home. He enlisted in 1942 and was a navigator that completed two tours of duty in Lancaster and Wellington Bombers. His career was distinguished by both a Distinguished Flying Cross, and then a bar to the DFC.

All funds raised will help fund our 242 Ross Ferguson Air Cadets program to provide cadets with a full range of training opportunities, trips, and experiences in the air and on the ground. This year's fundraising focuses on marksmanship, biathlon and sports equipment, and a year-end trip.

Our cadets greatly appreciate your support as they gain lifelong memories and skills from the cadet program and make connections that are simply remarkable.
